River Rinito Brevities.

A. C. Cowles of Bloomington, Ill. writes to know in what year the steamers Agnes Saxton. Commetteut and Garden City piled in the trade between St. Louis and Patsburg, and also what year the river at St. Louis was frozen so hard that teams crossed to East St. Louis on the ice.

-Proceedings have been started at Cincinnati by the Government to condemn a large farm on the river north of the city, for the purpose of building a dam and lock. Rivermen believe this is the first move to secure a nine-foot channel from Pattsburg to Cairo.

A report of the channel from Memphis to this is the first move to secure a nine-root channel from Pathburg to Cairo.

—A report of the channel from Memphis to Vicksburg was received yesterday at the harbor rooms from the officers of the United States lighthnouse steamer Nokomis.

—Captain Robert E. Lee, general manager of the Lee Line is at Paducah, Ky, superintending respairs on the Stacker Lee.

—J. R. Lord, Edward Ayer and N. H. Dowdell of the Ayer-Lerd The Company, are at Johnson, Tenn, inspecting timber land.

—A proposition to have the survey of the Ohio River completed from the mouth of the Rig Miami River to Cairo will be placed before Congress after the holidays.

—The towboat Al Martin, plying between The towheat Al Martin, plying between Chelinati and Frankfort, is reported sunk in the Kentucky River twenty-five miles below Frankfort. Frankfort.

Vesterday afternoon there was but a half a foot above the low-water mark registered on the harbor gauge, making the lowest gauge for three years.

The market opened atrons at an advance of 17g27 points in excited covering and buil support, following a semational advance in Liverbool. The market had been expected to show a trifle decime. It opened unchanged, but afterwards shot up like a tocket, with prices at about the time of the licen opening some 18g19 English points net higher. Frivate colless explained the advance on the ground of a scare of shorts in consequence of American, Continental and Egyptian buying, with the impression more of less prevalent that the New Orleans bull leader had neiped the upward course of prices. Whatever the cause, however, the foreign gains started active covering in the local market, and for the first few minutes buying orders come pouring in from every shot in sharp contrast to the builder aspect of recent time. Naturally the advance carrying in attracted beforeign were promptly absorbed and only unimportant sethacks occurred during the whole session, with the buil leaders supporting the market aggressively in every sign of a weakness. The highest boilt was late in the session, when Jan. sold at 12.50c; March 12.50c; May 12.99c, and July 12.39c, these being net gains of 25 to 2 boints. All kinds of newsware circulated in the advance. Messages were received in great numbers from the South chaining approaching exhaustion and a veryballish disposition mong holders, with some private advices alleging that Southern spot handlers had defaulted in their contracts to ship cotton abroad, thus contributing to the advance in Liverpool, where it was claimed prices for formal market were estimated at 100.00 bales.

FOUND FROZEN BODY IN RIVER Search of Clothing Revealed No Means of Identification.

Frozen and covered with ice and sand six inches thick, the body of a man was found on the river bank at the foot of President street yesterday afternoon. William Rothernel of No. 2519 South Second street, and John Scott of No. 121 Cher ond street, and John Scott of No. El Cherokee street, found the body. They notified the Second District police and the body was sent to the morghe.

Superintendent Cowle and his assistants worked for more than an hour before they were able to remove the lee and sand which were frozen to the clothing. A search developed nothing that would assist the police in establishing the identity. The body is that of a man about 60 years old, He wore a black serge suit of good material and a red and white striped shirt. He also had on a United States army belt. His hair and beard are gray. DEMANDS RETURN OF MONEY

Armenian Refuses to Leave Alexandretta Without His Property.

Constantinople, Dec. 17.-The American Vice Consul at Alexandretta telegraphs that Attarian, the naturalized American whose arrest caused Consul Davis to leave Alexandretta, has declined the transpor-tation tendered him by the authorities until the latter refund him the money. amounting to $2,500, seized at the time of his arrest.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Further advices from Minister Leishman at Constantinople to the State Department show that he has made an energetic protest to the Porte against the action of the Turkish officials at Alexandretta.

Mr. Leishman's last cablegram further sustains Consul Pavis in his action, and the State Department consequently is not disposed to regard favorably any complaints from the Porte against his defense of naturalized American citizens.

OUR PATTERN DEPARTMENT

All Patterns-10 Cents-All Patterns

Girls' Shirt-Waist Costume. No. 9141 Girls' Shirt-Walst Costume. No. 914-Shirt-walst costumes for young girls make a pleasing change from blouse suits and have a neat appearance that recommends them to mothers.

An attractive mode is shown here developed in bright red serge with black velvet trimming. The skirt is shaped with five gores fitted smoothly around the walst and flaring stylishly at the hem, where a narrow band of velvet is applied.

MAI-GIRLS' SHIRT-WAIST COSTUME 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

The closing is made invisibly at the back under two inverted pialits which are flatly pressed. The skir: is attached to the lower edge of a fitted body lining that fastens at the back.

The back of the shirt waist is plain across the shoulders and bouses at the belt. The front closes invisibly under a broad center box plait. This is trimmed with large square buttons; Foliness in the front is dis-ributed around the neck and across the shoulders. The shirt waist is gathered at the lower edge and attached to a narrow velvet belt.

Fancy velvet shoulder trimmings extend over the sieeves and the coller has a pointed tab in front that rests on the box plait. One-piece bishop sleeves fit the upper am closely and are wide at the wist, where the fullness is arranged on cuffs shaped to match the other trimming.

Dresses in this style are made of cheviot, cashmere, flannel or mixed fabrics combined with slik, velvet or lace.

To make the dress for a girl of 8 years will require three yards of material 36 inches wide, with three-quarters of a yard of velvet. The pattern, No. 9141, is cut in sizes for girls of 6, 8, 10 and 12 years.

Ladies' Dressing Sacque, With Fancy Collar, No. 9148—It has become the fashion for women to wear house wrappers and sacques to harmonize with the prevailing color in their boudeir. For this reason the recent displays of these garments show rainbow tints, the prevailing colors being pale blue and bright red.

9148-LADIES DRESSING SACQUE WITH FANCY COLLAR. 32, 36 and 40 inch bust.

25.00 S2, 35 and 40 inch bust.

10,000 This sacque is made of pale blue eiderdown with trimming in a darker shade. It is simply adjusted with shoulder and under-arm seams, fits well over the shoulders and hangs very loosely in box effect. Two deep plaits extend from neck to hem back and front. They are fastened with fancy catch stitching part way down and provide additional fullness to the lower edge of the sacque.

5,000 A broad "handkerchief" collar completes the neck. It has points back and front. also on the shoulders, and hangs loosely in cape effect, giving a becoming droop to the shoulders. The collar is finished with dark blue wash ribbon and drawn close at the neck with ribbons tied in a bow. One-plece sleeves fit the upper arm closely and and flare widely at the wirst, where they are finished with ribbon. Sacques in this style are made of flannelette, cashmere, flannel or Turkish towelling, which comes in any colors for this purpose.

To make the sacque in the medium size will require four and one-half yards of material 27 inches wide. The pattern, No. 9148, is cut in sizes for a 22, 35, and 40-inch bust measure.
